

I am very
dissapointed to see
the position your
company has taken.
During a time of
such division and
anguish in our
country, you have
chosen to divide and
ignite for political
purpose.

The Republican base
continuously accuses
the media of being
liberal, but you
have proven this
wrong. The biased
you are encouraging
is both dangerous
and sad and I
sincerely hope you
reconsider.

The American people
deserve to make up
their minds given
the truth and the
correct information.
The media owes us
that much.

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is a clear example
of the dangers of
media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the
public airwaves free
of charge, and is
obligated by law to
serve the public interest. But when
large companies
control the
airwaves, we get
more of what's good
for the bottom line
and less of what we
need for our democracy. Instead
of something
produced at "News
Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real
people from our own
communities and more
substantive news

about issues that
matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not
weaken them. They
show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned
postcard. Thank you.

Sincerely,
